A quick note from the POTENTATE

As the 2011 year winds down, I wanted to thank all of you for the support you have given myself, the first lady and the entire Shrine. We learned a great lot about the Shrine, our hospitals and our Shrine children. After seeing and talking to some of the Shriner children, Marty and I realized how important is the medical care that the children receive, but so is the chance to still be a child. Please...bring a gift to place under the Shrines new Christmas tree so they might have a great Christmas delivered by the Shriners. With luck and encouragement, they will sing the praises of Shrinedom to all and help further our cause and philanthropy.

We again wish to thank all of you and wish you and yours a

MERRY CHRISTMAS

RECORDERS CORNER

The holiday season is upon us.

It is the season to give thanks for all that we have and take time to do something for the less fortunate, especially the children that are in our hospitals and those being treated by our hospitals for life changing problems.

Again this year Tehran Shrine is collecting, new unwrapped, toys that will be taken to the hospital, by Tom Crosno, before Christmas.

I hope that all of you have been to the Shrine Center and have see the NEW CHRISTMAS TREE.

Jane Gamonian and the Temple Belles have replaced the well used tree that we have used for many years.

Please take time to come to the Shrine Center and see how great it looks. When you do bring a toy and help a child enjoy Christmas more.

Make plans to attend the installation of the 2012 officers on January 7, 2012. At Pardini's 2257 W Shaw. Send your check for $35.00 per person to the Shrine office 5407 E Olive, Fresno Ca. 93727 or call the Shrine office 559-251-1991 to pay via charge card, RESERVATIONS REQUIRED BY JANUARY 3, 2012.

Ladies Corner

The last month of the year 2011. It has flown by with many events and friendships made. I hope you have had a good year. Don't forget there are still a couple of Christmas parades still happening. Not only do they represent the wonderful season but for the Shriners it is also another opportunity to let the community know that they exist. Parades are our way of marketing ourselves and the services of the Shrine hospital.

I would like to thank the Daughters of the Nile for letting me be their guest at the annual Fashion Show in November. It is one of my favorite fundraisers to attend. Definitely a "girl" event and starts the holiday season feeling in my heart.

Dear ladies, I would like to update you regarding the First Lady's Project for this year. Our last fundraiser held to fund the project, Princess House fundraiser, was in October. Thank you to those who attended and if not attended purchased an item. A percentage of the sales went to the project. Thank you to Carole Soutas-Melara, Oriental Guide's Lady, who presented it. At this time we have a little over $1000 dollars going to the updated sound system for the Center. As you can see we have a bit more to go to meet the top goal of $2000 dollars to install the sound system. In saying that, I will have the monies collected so far be held at the Shrine in a designated account for the sound system. Hopefully our nobles will be able to add to it in the future and attain the much needed sound system. Thank you all for your generous donations to this cause.

Lastly thank you for letting me have the opportunity to represent you. I had a wonderful time this year. Have a great Holiday Season and many good wishes to the Shrine in the coming year.

Lady Marty Jauss
